

Contact:

Jeni Kaiser, K Squared Communications for ATAA
(847) 401-0479

ATAA Upcoming Webinar Details

Phoenix, AZ – September 29, 2006: The Association of Travel Agents of America (ATAA) is pleased to announce their three upcoming webinars that will kick off on October 4th. Each session focuses on presenting travel agents with the tools that are important today for a successful travel consultancy. The webinars are open to both ATAA members and non-members, and the details of these opportunities are as follows:

TOPIC: Google E-Selling, by Bob Abrames (tele-class)
DATE: October 4th
TIME: 9:00am OR 12:00pm PST
PRICE: $60 per session-per connection (ATAA Members)
$100 per session-per connection (Non-members)

TOPIC: Travel Agency Professional Consulting Fees—A frontline agent's guide, by Nolan Burris
DATE: October 11th
TIME: 9:00am OR 12:00pm PST
PRICE: $60 per session-per connection (ATAA Members)
$100 per session-per connection (Non-members)

TOPIC: Aptitudes of Great Sellers, by Bob Abrames (tele-class)
DATE: October 18th
TIME: 9:00am OR 12:00pm PST
PRICE: $60 per session-per connection (ATAA Members)
$100 per session-per connection (Non-members)

Registration and further description for these events is available online at www.ataa.net. For questions about ATAA call (888) 550-1195.

About ATAA

The Association of Travel Agents of America has one singular goal: Teaching Travel Agents to Succeed. ATAA exists to help travel agents be more profitable and more aware of important changes in our industry. This is accomplished by utilizing experts from inside and outside of the travel industry to deliver educational events in person and over the web. Founded in 1983 as a regional organization, ATAA has significant membership in the western US and is growing to serve travel sellers nationwide. More information about ATAA is available at www.ataa.net, via email at info@ataa.net or by calling (888) 550 1195.

(more)

###